A day of Nautical Fun and Games

Life on the sea can be tough. So you should have fun sometimes.

Dates: Tuesday, 11 July: 10.00 am - 12.00 noon

Thursday, 13 July: 10.00 am - 12.00 noon

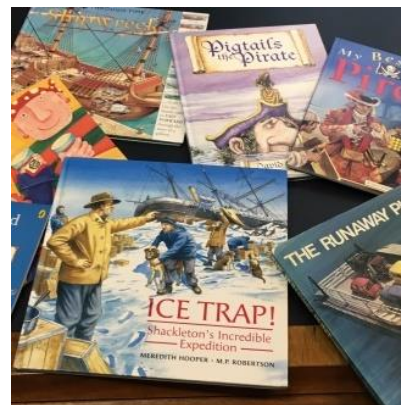

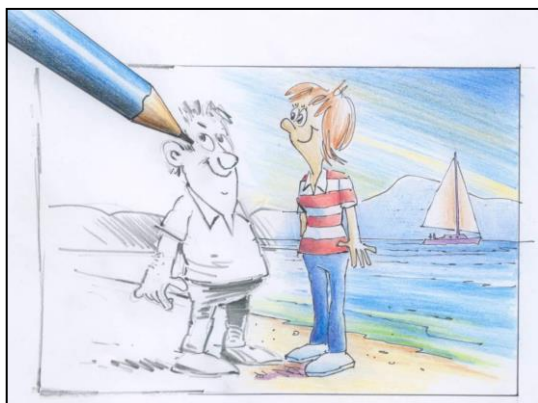

Tuesday, 18 July: 10.00 am - 12.00 noon

Thursday, 20 July: 10.00 am - 12.00 noon

Ages: 7-14 years

Ahoy there, shipmates. We thought that while the weather is cold, it might be a good idea to spend the day inside. Of course, what better way to spend it than to play some games! And this time the parents can get involved as well if they like.

We have a great range of activities planned, including board games, such as Battleships and Penguin Freeze Tag for younger children, and Survive - Escape from Atlantis (for older children and adults who like strategy games). We will have books to read and some jigsaws, plus colouring-in and craft activities. As a special treat, our very own artist, Louis Rodway, will be available to provide some tips on drawing if you would to improve your artwork.

Luckily, we will have access to a lot of space in the Carnegie Gallery, so we will also be playing a classic game often played on board cruise ships, "deck quoits".

And we will have an 'animal' hunt through the museum. You would be surprised just how many animals we have lurking in the museum. We will have our "Trim" the cat to help you with some clues (for those interested in history, Trim was Matthew Flinders' cat who sailed with him around Australia).

Cost: $5.00 per family
(for this fee you gain entry to the whole Museum on the day)

Places are limited, so please call or email us to make a booking very soon.

NOTE: We ask that young children be accompanied by a guardian.
