- A photograph showing a variety of decorated cookies on a white plate. The cookies include several round ones with different icing colors (blue, green, yellow, pink) and toppings like sprinkles or small candies. There are also two rectangular cookies, one pink and one teal, both decorated with white dots. One large blue cookie has a face drawn on it with black icing for eyes and a smile, topped with a small pink candy. Another blue cookie has a white swirl of frosting on top.
