

Out Door Kitchen Cooking Classes

Over the last few weeks students during cooking classes have learnt about Aboriginal life before colonisation. Students cooked Wallaby and Wattle Seed Damper on an open fire using only the natural resources available to them from the outdoor kitchen area. Students made soap using Blackwood leaves, tasted Salt berries and Pig face and studied real Aboriginal artefacts.

