

A swashbuckling adventure for all ages!

Hobart Rep will delight children and adults alike this winter, with a breathtaking production of the classic high-seas adventure, Treasure Island, adapted by Ken Ludwig from the Robert Louis Stevenson novel.

The coming-of-age story follows Jim Hawkins, an inn-keepers boy whose adventure starts after meeting Billy Bones, an old sailor with a secret map. This map leads Jim and his companions on a high-stakes quest to uncover the treasure hidden by fabled pirate Captain Flint.

This Treasure Island production captures the sweeping extravaganza of life on the high seas, exotic tropical islands and the hunt for buried treasure. It's filled with thrilling sword fights, colourful characters and a talking parrot!

The talented cast features Katrina Green in the central character of Jim Hawkins, with Jeff Keogh playing the part of the villainous Long John Silver. They are ably supported by a large cast, including Steven Jones, Jen Makin, Michael Hanlon, Matt Dobson, Tai Gardner, Brendon Flynn, Sera Goldstone, Lillie McNamara and many more.

Directed by CJ Bowers, and with a stunning set by renowned Tasmanian designer William Dowd, Treasure Island is a must-see event.

Treasure Island* is on at the Playhouse Theatre, Bathurst Street, Hobart
