ME

I am thoughtful and kind,
I wonder what life will be like in 50 years,
I hear the coming and going of waves,
I want to know the meaning of life.

I
I am thoughtful and kind,
I pretend I live in a world of only kindness,
I feel joyful when I'm with loved ones,
I touch the soft fur of a dog,
I worry that everyone will leave.

I cry when life is sad,
I dream of friends and laughter,
I try to always be there when I'm needed,
I hope I will always have loving loyal friends,
I am thoughtful and kind.

Poem

I am smart and I am curious.
I do what I must do, and I do it responsibly.
I wonder what's in the sky, planets, stars and suns.
I hear the wind blow through my ears.
I want to live somewhere else and explore the world.

I am friendly and kind.
I pretend I'm good at things when I'm not.
I feel plants going across my fingers.

I worry if I do something wrong.
I cry if something sad happens in life.

I am brave and strong.
I understand if something goes wrong.
I say that you only get one life so make it your best life.
I dream that one day I'll be in my happy place.

I try do my best in everything.
I hope I live a happy life.

I am brave and loyal

By Charlie C

I am friendly and cheerful
I wonder what the world will bring to me next?
I feel sad when my friends leave me out, I feel happy when I can play with all of my friends
I hear continuous voices everywhere I go
I understand when people are sad and lonely, everyone gets sad and lonely
I worry when things don't go that well with one of my friends
I am shy and caring
I want to have friends that get along a little more and friends that stop talking about 'anime'
I dream when I am older that I will have a happy life
I say nice and kind words
I am friendly and cheerful

ME

I am kind and funny.
I wonder what I'm going to be like when I'm older.
I hear birds chirping and the trees rustling in the wind.
I want to be the best friends that I can.
I am kind and funny.
I pretend that everything is okay when it isn't.
I feel happy when my friends are nice to me.
I touch the nice green grass.
I worry that the future is going to be bad.
I cry when I get yelled at.
I dream of nice things.
I try to be a nice person.
I hope that the future is going to be good.
I am kind and funny.

ME

I am kind and unique
I wonder what the world will be like when I'm old
I see the water dripping as I lie in bed
I want peace in the world
I pretend I can fly in my own world
I feel happy as I laugh my friends
I touched the bark of an old, ancient tree
I worry when I make the wrong decisions
I cry with laughter as my friend's goof around
I say "it's OK" when things go wrong
I dream of peace with no fighting
I try to make the right choices
I hope to live long and happily
I am kind and unique

I am caring and respectful.
I wonder what I'll be when I grow up.
I hear constant muttering of voices throughout the day.
I want to always be kind to others.
I am caring and respectful.
I pretend everything is okay and I'll be fine.
I feel happy when I help others.
I touch and hold gifts that have been given to me.
I worry that I can't please people.
I cry when I do or say something that hurts others.
I understand no one is perfect and we make mistakes.
I say things that encourage others.
I dream of fun times I'll have in the future.
I try to do my best in everything.
I hope to reach my achievements and goals.
I am caring and respectful.

By Eva

I am caring and shy.

I wonder what the world will bring me next? Will I rise or fall? Succeed or fail? Do what's right or do what's wrong?

I hear continuous speech of a common language. Constant ringing when I'm stressed or angry. I wish I wouldn't suffer from this.

I want the best for others and the same for myself, as long as we are happy, that's all I want. But is it all I need?

I am caring and shy.

I pretend nothing bad has ever happened and what I suffer is just a dream. Hoping my anxiety would someday disappear. Will this dream of mine appear?

I feel a shiver down my spine, as I'm in a math's test I can't define. My mistakes and answers are all mixed up. Thinking to myself: I can't do it! It's too much!

I touch and flick through memories and pictures of a family more than two.

I worry too much of what's not going to happen, scared that problems can't be fixed or resolved.

I cry at times, but I try to stay positive so I don't ruin mine or someone else's day.

I am caring and shy.

Me!

I am loud and VERY forgetful

I wonder if I will get a video game I want

I hear rain and trees in the rain

I want a bingus (cute hairless cat)

I pretend that my teddies are real

I feel happy, often

I touch my cat's fluffy chest

I worry about my dog, Woody, all the time

I am loud and VERY forgetful

I cry sometimes when I make my animal crossing villagers sad

I say mostly funny things

I dream about really random things, and I think I should worry

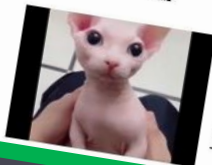

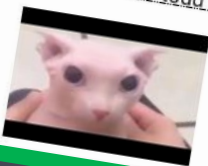

I try to draw really cool things and it sometimes goes how I plan it to

I hope I have a good Year 6

I understand that some things I want may never come true.

I am loud and VERY forgetful

←bingus

I am funny and exuberant.

I wonder when the environment will be clean.

I hear water rushing down a stream, splashes and laughter.

I want to know how the universe works.

I am funny and exuberant.

I pretend that I live in a world with only me.

I feel happy when I'm with my family and friends.

I touch seaweed on my feet in the water

I worry if I'm good enough.

I cry of laughter when my friends are funny.

I say "she'll be right" when something's wrong.

I dream of peace and happiness.

I try to be loyal and kind.

I hope to support my parents when they get old.

I am funny and exuberant.
