

Kinder B

In Kinder B we have been exploring About Me. We have talked about what we like, our feelings, things that we love to do and what is special about us. As part of this exploration we created a self —portrait using a photo of our face and drawing our own body, to make a picture of ourselves.

